

Ghost Of The Lagoon Short Story

Ghost Of The Lagoon Short Story - "Ghost of the Lagoon". The story begins by introducing the protagonist, or main character, Mako. Mako is fairly young, though his exact age is never given. He spends most of his time in the lagoon on Bora Bora. A lagoon is an area of water surrounded partly by land and separated from the ocean by a reef. "The Ghost of the Lagoon" is a children's short story by Armstrong Sperry that takes place in the South Pacific on the volcanic island of Bora Bora. The protagonist is a young boy named Mako whose grandfather tells him the story of the "ghost...A ten year old boy wanted to kill the ghost of the lagoon, Tupo, because the monster killed the boy's father. Ghost of the Lagoon Armstrong Sperry Targeted Passage #2 – lines 34-50 “Tupa lives in the great caves of the reef. He is longer than this house. There is a sail on his back, not large but terrible to see, for it burns with a white fire. Once, when I was fishing beyond the reef at night, I saw him come up right under another canoe—”
