

Lonely Planets Best In Travel 2014 Lonely Planet Best In Travel

Lonely Planets Best In Travel 2014 Lonely Planet Best In Travel - Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe and Zambia. Since the US dollar replaced the much-maligned Zimbabwean dollar, the economy has recovered from years of hyperinflation – making 2014 the best time to visit in 15 years. Meanwhile, the past decade has seen laid-back Livingstone take over the mantle as the falls' premier tourist town. Lonely Planet... Visit Shop Plan an unforgettable year of travel with Lonely Planet's Best in Travel 2014 - your ultimate guide to the best places to go right now. Lonely Planet knows the world better than anyone else. From the people who have been delivering trustworthy guidebooks to every destination in the world for 40 years, Lonely Planet's Best in Travel 2014 is your passport to a year of unforgettable experiences. Best value destinations for 2014 in Lonely Planet Best in Travel 2014 are the Greek Islands, Italy's Heel (Puglia) and Nicaragua. Lonely Planet's ninth annual roundup of best destinations around the world for the upcoming year was based on "scores for topicality, excitement and that special x-factor," as determined by their inhouse experts and outside writers.